Men of Oak

Timbers of oak keep the old homestead standing through the years. It pays to use the right stuff.

"Men of oak" are men in rugged health, men whose bodies are made of the soundest materials.

Childhood is the time to lay the foundation for a sturdy constitution that will last for years. Scott's Emulsion is the right stuff.

Scott's Emulsion stimulates the growing powers of children, helps them build a firm foundation for a sturdy constitution.

FORCE OF THE SUGGESTION

Tramp on Railway Station Aroused from Lethargy, But Dream Soon Vanishes.

He was seated on the edge of a railway station platform, with an absent-minded expression in his whisker-covered face, and was apparently lost in the deep contemplation of nothing, says the New York Herald.

Two young men who came from the telegraph office in the station, where they had stood at a small window looking at the train, quickly approached him. "Your house is on fire and family in danger," said one of them. "Here comes a train that will take you home. Get your ticket and jump aboard as soon as you can."

The man sprang to his feet as a flash came to his face, and the light of excitement lit up his eyes. He ran across the platform, entered the station and hurried to the ticket window, where the ticket agent presented himself.

The man opened his mouth, as though about to speak, then closed it again, and, turning from the window, returned slowly to the platform and resumed his seat. He was a homeless, friendless and penniless tramp who had been suddenly aroused from lethargy.

TRUTHS ABOUT ANIMALS.

Actual Facts Cannot Be Obtained from Natural History Books or Casual Observers.

The serious student of nature can have no interest in belittling or in exaggerating the intelligence of animals, writes John Burroughs, in "What Do Animals Know?" in the Century. "What he wants is the truth about them, and this he will not get from our natural history romances, nor from the casual, untrained observers who are so prone to interpret the lives of the wood folk in terms of their own motives and experiences, nor from Indians, trappers or backwoodsmen, who give such free rein to their fancies and superstitions. Not to Romans or Jesus or Michael must we go for the truth about animals, but to the patient, honest Darwin, to such calm, keen and philosophical investigators as Lloyd Morgan, and to the book of such sportsmen as Charles S. Johnson, or to our own candid, intelligent and wide-awake Theodore Roosevelt—men capable of disinterested observation, with no theories about animals to uphold.

LET IT GO AS A SCHOONER

Greek Instructor at Yale Makes Suggestion to a Student in Difficulties.

The Greek professor at Yale who has the reputation of being the wisest instructor in college never allows a man to think if it can be prevented, says the New York Sun. He insists on taking the most optimistic view of every attempt, and if it can possibly be construed into a successful recitation he gives the student credit.

Recently a student was making a futile bluff to translate at sight a passage of Greek containing the words "myrtle crowned beaker." The word for beaker bears considerable resemblance to the word skiff, which the author had frequently used. The student, recognizing the resemblance, ventured in a hesitating voice, "Myrtle crowned skiff."

The professor said: "Yes, that's right; just right—go on—only the more common modern word is 'schooner.'"

SMUGGLING A FINE ART.

Pseudo Count and Countess in Auto Found to Be Notorious Offenders.

The latest thing in smuggling comes from the Swiss frontier, where the art of bringing in contraband goods by automobiles has been developed into a fine art.

A party of finely dressed tourists, presumably a count and countess with a friend, has been crossing the frontier repeatedly.

The suspicions of the authorities were at last aroused. The automobile was stopped and searched and the pseudo count and countess were found to be notorious smugglers.

Their fine raiment as well as their automobile was simply loaded with all sorts of dutiable stuff.

Investigations hereafter are likely to be more severe than ever.

Giant from Indian Territory.

One of the delegates sent by Indian Territory to the democratic national convention was C. A. Skeen, who stands six feet three inches in his stockings and is a big man even for his stature.

Mr. Skeen, a most voracious man, it would appear, said in an interview: "I am sorry that none of the big men of the territory was able to attend this convention. They were all busy and so they said that the little fellows, who are not of so much use at work, must come along. Some of the men in the territory are so big that they are not able to travel. The car seats and the hotel beds are all too small for them. So they stay at home. But that is no hardship for a man who lives in India."
